GENERAL NEW ORLEANS STRIKE SEEN

WALKOUT OF WORKERS LOOMS

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 6. (U.P.)—With union and Public Service company officials still at odds, and the commission unable to break the deadlock, a new threat entered the strike situation here tonight, with the announcement from several trades and crafts that their memberships will be polled on the question of sympathetic walkouts. This threat followed clashes earlier in the day in which union men and their sympathizers set fire to seven cars.

William Ruth, president of the building trades council, informed the city commission on behalf of his constituents today that meetings would be held tonight to determine what action shall be taken. A walkout of the building trades, Ruth pointed out, would leave the city in total darkness, since electricians and metal workers would be included in the general order.

Some 20,000 workers would be involved, it was said.

No Statements
Officials of the union and the Public Service company had no statements to make concerning an early settlement. Each had submitted formal statements to the (Continued on Page 8)

NURSERY CO. WILL BUILD GREENHOUSE PLANT HERE

Construction of a large greenhouse in the western section of San Pablo will be started by the West Richmond Nursery company in November, it was learned yesterday.

The cost of the building was not made public but it is understood that it will cost a "large sum".

A site of more than 15 acres of land was purchased by the company just west of the Southern Pacific tracks. The land cost about $1500. It is understood that at the present time arrangements are being made by the company for the purchase of additional land.

The building will be of a steel and glass construction.

Although the size of the building was not announced it is believed that it will cover the entire site. Additional plans to specialize in the growing of roses of all types. There has been an increasing demand for these flowers and the company will supply the florists not only in this vicinity but also those in many parts of the Pacific coast regions.

Contracts for the building are expected to be let within a short time. It is understood that the construction will take more than three months.

The West Richmond Nursery company is a newly organized concern with a large number of local stockholders.

S. P. Heads Meet To Avert Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6. (U.P.)—In the hope of settling disputes involving changes in working conditions, Southern Pacific Railroad executives and officials of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers conferred here today.

The arbitration committee expresses hope that an amicable solution will be reached in connection with the company's refusal of demands of the union including an increase in pay and the right to negotiate for all engineers.

The demands of the engineers have been turned down by only two roads in the country, the Missouri Pacific and Milwaukee companies, according to the union officials, and engineers on both roads are preparing to take a strike vote.

J. P. Farrell, vice-president of the International Brotherhood, is acting on the arbitration committee.

Hollis Thompson, representing the joint highway district directors, presented a survey of costs and location at the meeting. The plan, which includes a highway from Broadway in North Oakland to Walnut Creek, has been devised to provide a safer highway as the terminus for the Victory highway. All dangerous curves and grades now existing on the Tunnel road would be eliminated.

Arthur C. Huston, chairman of the executive committee of the association and owner of some 12,000 acres involved in the Delta water rights litigation, with Scheidler, president of the Association of Industrial Water Users will be asked to explain the benefits to be derived from the bay barrier by Contra Costa and the other counties bordering on the Sacramento river.

Lehew heard the words of condemnation calmly. No trace of emotion was visible upon his face as he walked between his guards back to his cell. He will be removed to San Quentin prison immediately.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6. (U.P.)—Disposing of an estate valued at $100,000, the will of the late William T. Sesnon, real estate man, was filed for probate here today.

274 FAIL TO PAY HOTEL LEVY

With approximately 274 owners of stock in the Hotel Carquinez, refusing to pay assessments on their stock, recently levied by the board of directors, it was estimated yesterday from published delinquent lists, that the assessment of $30,000 fell about $9000 short of the figure which the officials of the community hotel company hoped to raise.

Included among those who failed to make the payment of $15.24 on each share of preferred stock and 1 on each share of common stock, is Charles B. Hamilton, president of the Hamilton hotel chain which is operating the local hostelry.

All Walks of Life
The remainder of the list of delinquents includes county and city officials, publishers, attorneys, chamber of commerce directors, merchants, contractors, in fact everything from the highest ranking officials of the city and county to laborers.

In an announcement made by the directors of the hotel company when the assessment was levied in April it was hoped to refinance the $75,000 mortgage standing against the hotel. It was explained that the money to be derived from the assessment would lower the mortgage so that a more favorable rate of interest could be obtained on the remainder of the indebtedness.

According to the published notice of delinquents on the assessments, a public sale will be held at the office of the hotel company at Nineteenth and Fourth streets on July 22 when the stock will be sold for the amount of the assessment plus cost of sale and advertising.

Possible Disposition
If no bidders are on hand for the stock it will probably be taken over by the hotel company for the amount of the assessment plus the costs of the sale. This would mean that those who have retained the ownership of their stock will find their shares to be worth more, provided the refinancing plan of the directors can be carried out.

Just what disposition will be made of the problems of the hotel company was a much discussed problem on the streets of Richmond yesterday.

According to a statement made by H. A. Johnston, secretary, and E. M. Dwyer, president of the company, on June 7, there were 1667 fully paid units and 172 partially paid units of the stock of the company outstanding. Of this amount the assessment was unpaid on about 558 units, mostly in the hands of stockholders who hold only one or two shares, according to yesterday's published statement.

These meetings were designed to improve the quality of California grapes through cultural methods.

The demonstration meetings, planned by the University, will about July 29.

FOG QUENCHES LAST FLAMES ON TAMALPIAS

MILL VALLEY, Cal., July 6. (U.P.)—The murky, heavy fog that swept down the fire scarred side of Mount Tamalpais tonight and over this little town contracted strongly with the spirits of residents.

Despite the fact that more than 100 homes having an estimated value of more than $1,000,000 were burned to the ground when a brush fire swept down Tamalpais and threatened the town proper, there were no signs of grief.

Instead, Mill Valley continued to lay plans to rebuild and make this playground of San Francisco a "bigger and better" place.

The cool, heavy fog of the Pacific was quenching the last few remaining flames. Here and there were a few small fires, but they were under guard and gradually burning themselves out.

At a mass meeting citizens appointed a special committee of five to confer with federal, state, and local fire experts regarding precautions to prevent a repetition of the conflagration.

It was unanimously voted at the meeting to build new fire trails and enlarge the present ones; that all new structures must have fire proof roofs; that no hay or eucalyptus trees, both fire hazards, shall be planted in the burned over region.

A survey of forestry experts revealed that more than 800 acres of land, much of which was covered by beautiful and stately trees, had fallen prey to the menacing flames.

Torch Used To Free Workman

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6. (U.P.)—After all other methods had failed, workmen used an acetylene torch here today to free Tony Valenine from a cement mixer, in which his foot was crushed.

After an ambulance crew had failed to extricate Valenine, the fire department was summoned, but their efforts proved futile also.

As a last resort an acetylene torch was used to cut away part of the metal mixer.

The man was taken to the Central Emergency hospital where it was necessary to amputate the foot.

Cause of the accident has not been determined.

Their Wedding Talkie, With Interpolations, After Five Years of Fights

TALKING pictures of wedding ceremonies were advocated to-day by District Judge Herbert Rhodes of the Omaha Court of Domestic Relations as an antidote for domestic strife. Judge Rhodes said: "I think such a custom would save the institution of marriage.—News note.

Deeply beloved, we are together together. In the face of this company. He (with reminiscence, again): You would have a big wedding, though I told you I hated it! And you worked so hard getting ready for it that you were a nervous wreck, and—

She (quick as a flash): Well, anyhow, my father paid the bills! He didn't raise a row every time I suggested something that cost him five cents. He lived on my money, and I never knew what it was, in those days, to fight for every penny.

And therefore is not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly. She (suddenly): That's what I did. If I'd thought a little more, as Mother advised me, if I'd realized what I was doing! When I remember the men I might have married!

He (nastily): When I remember 'em, it's impossible to live in peace with some women.

She (Yes, blame it all on me. If you really loved me—if you had ever really cared—

No, a talkie of the marriage ceremony could start too many lines of recrimination, in the case of first-class fighting couple—nothing is more sure than idealism turned to irony. Try again, Judge!

A Tip for Homemakers

Start your boy and girl right on their vacation. Make it your business to plan the leisure time of your children. They spend it largely under your supervision. Vacation should not be all play. Children old enough to go to school are old enough to assume home duties. Have your daughter assist you in all your home tasks and give your son some work to do. Let him put up shelves and encourage him to make repairs around the house. They will like to share these home responsibilities with you and dad.

Old fashioned potato cake approaches the perfect chocolate loaf cake. Its claim to superiority is based upon its fine texture, richness, deep chocolate and nut flavor, color and quality.

What a potato cake is not the perfect chocolate cake. It is a culinary find. So good that it is best eaten without frosting. This loaf solves the dessert problem at the home or outdoor meal.

The secret of the cake's goodness lies in plenty of cocoa, a sprinkle of spices and hot mashed potato. The potato makes the cake for moistness, the cocoa for a rich brown color and the spices for flavor.

The experienced cake-maker will have little difficulty in making

REAL POTATO CAKE

One-half cup butter
Two cups white sugar
One cup hot mashed, salted potatoes
One cup cocoa
One cup chopped walnut meats
Two cups flour
Four eggs beaten separately
Two teaspoons baking powder
One teaspoon cinnamon
One teaspoon cloves
Shake fine, thirty to sixty minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees.

A loaf pan is the desired type of pan for this cake. Sixty minutes is required for the baking. A shallow pan may be preferred and the time reduced to 45 minutes.

The time depends upon the thickness of the loaf. The oven must be moderate, as for all chocolate cake mixtures.

The working kit should include saucepan, masher, paring knife, a mixing bowl, two bowls for eggs, egg beater, measuring cup, after, teaspoon, nut cracker, spatula, large spoon, loaf pan, thermometer, clock, cake rack. A pan water may be useful in the oven.

First peel two or three potatoes thinly and boil in the saucepan until tender, drain, mash and salt to taste. Keep hot until needed.

Crack the nuts and break or cut coarsely with a knife. Measure. Grease the loaf pan and line with greased brown paper. Sift the flour, baking powder and spices together. Light the oven.

Work the butter to a cream in the mixing bowl and gradually cream in the sugar. Stir the slightly beaten egg yolks, and then the hot, mashed potatoes. No other liquid will be required. Fold in the flour, cocoa and nut meats. Whip the egg whites stiff.

Lightly stir the stiffed flour, baking powder, cocoa and nut meats into the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour the cake into loaf tin and set in the moderate oven.

The cake will be done when it shrinks from the sides of the pan, or springs back when touched lightly by the finger. Remove to the cake rack and when slightly cool turn the pan upside down on the rack. Cool well before cutting.

A rich chocolate icing or a white icing may be spread over the cake. No icing is necessary.

FIRST AFRICAN TALKIE ON SCREEN

The story of “A Dangerous Woman” is coming to the Fox-California theater for two days beginning today. This is the first African talkie film with all talking, experienced and talented actors, and a plot, romance, comedy and unparallelled action.

The story of “A Dangerous Woman” is based upon a novel by Anthony Powell, which appeared in Cosmopolitan magazine. It tells of a Russian woman who falls under the dreamy, romantic spell of a young African and turns her back on all the world to follow him into a remote village in the jungle where she continues the life of each day, until the thrill of a new love.

“A Dangerous Woman” is a picture of the type that has been called “the picture of the future.” It is a picture of the future, for it is the first African talkie film with all talking, experienced and talented actors, and a plot, romance, comedy and unparallelled action.

Savant Praises Modern Pupils

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 6 (U.P.)—Dean Clarence M. Mendenhall, Yale professor of education, is now on a higher scale than in many years. Taking issue with recent statements of Chief Justice William Howard Taft, who bemoaned a decline in scholarship, Dean Mendenhall declared that college studies reached its lowest ebb between 1895 and 1905 and has shown a steady upward trend ever since.

FEDERAL PROBE OF MOUNTAIN DEATHS

PARADISE INN, RANIER NATIONAL PARK, Wash., July 6 (U.P.)—Steps toward a federal investigation of the tragedy which took the life of Forrest Greathouse and Edwin Wetzel on the slopes of Mount Ranier were being taken today while the search for Greathouse's body went forward.

Fog and clouds hampered the searching party on the slopes of the great peak 10,000 feet above sea level where they are hunting for the body at the bottom of a crevasse.

While Major C. A. Tomlinson assembled data for the investigation doubt was expressed in many circles that the body of Greathouse will be found. The glacial crevasses change in form daily and anything which falls between the edge of the ice and the earth is pulverized by the sliding tons of ice.

Greathouse and Wetzel fell to their deaths when a party of six men slipped over the edge of a crevasse Tuesday. Wetzel was so badly hurt in the fall to the first shelf that he died. The other four who clung to the shelf were rescued, but Greathouse fell hundreds of feet further to the bottom of the crevasse.

Squirrels Move To Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 6 (U.P.)—Perhaps because of a shortage of nuts in the Nutmeg state, an extraordinary number of squirrels are migrating from Connecticut to Rhode Island.

With the exception of 1927, there are now more squirrels in Rhode Island forests than at any time since 1920, according to Chairman Everett L. Walling, of the State Commissioner of Birds.

Heavy losses in the Connecticut squirrel population led to the supposition that the animals were migrating from that state.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: “One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping.”

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless. It works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

THAT'S A GOOD IDEA WALLY!!

HEY FRITZI— I'M GONNA GIVE YOU A BIG RAISE IN SALARY!

NOW YOU'LL HAVE TO LET ME OFF EARLIER EVERY NIGHT SO I'LL HAVE TIME TO SPEND IT!

SLOW SPEEDS AID SAVING OF GAS

"It ain't the shoes that 'urts the 'orses' 'oots, hits the 'ammer, 'ammer, 'ammer on the 'ard 'ish-ways,' or to paraphrase the old adage it isn't the speeding car burbling up the miles on the open road that eats gasoline unreasonably, it's the constant starting and stopping in heavy traffic that leads the majority of motorists to believe their engines are falling to deliver the proper mileage per gallon, states Harry Curry, local Chrysler dealer.

"The carburetors on each of the Chrysler cars, the '65', '75' and 'Imperial' have been designed to give the maximum efficiency at all throttle positions and subsequent speed ranges, with the least amount of fuel consumption. These carburetors are all tested before becoming part of the car powerplant; are tested again before the motor is placed in assembly and are again tested and adjusted after the car leaves the assembly line.

"The Chrysler car owner driving his automobile with perfectly adjusted carburetor on the open highway finds that he gets normal mileage from a gallon of gasoline, but that in city driving his mileage per gallon decreases. A little study of the causes for this and a little more attention to the manner of driving in heavy traffic should result in car owners obtaining much better mileage per gallon in city driving.

Slow Speed Saves

"Constant speed tests show that the most economic speed to drive a Chrysler '65' is 20 miles an hour. At that constant speed 24 miles are obtainable to a gallon of gasoline. At higher speeds less mileage is obtained per gallon.

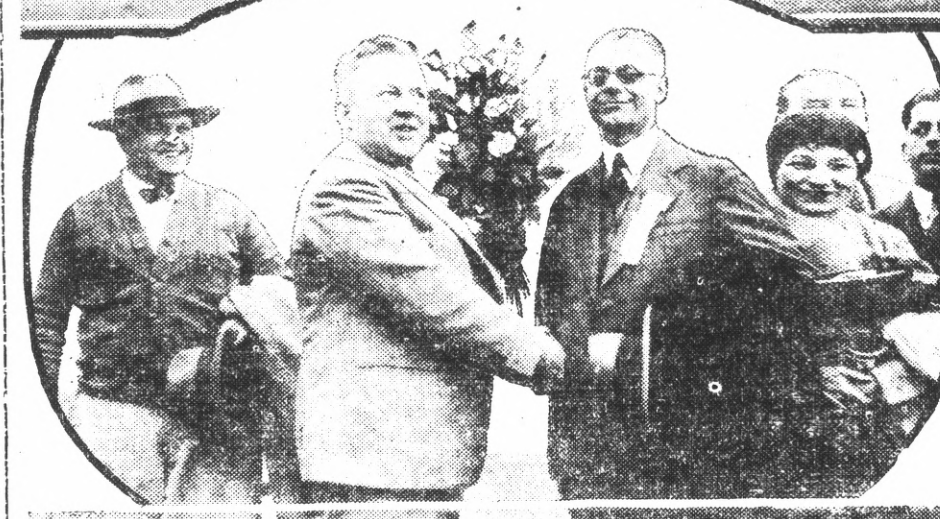

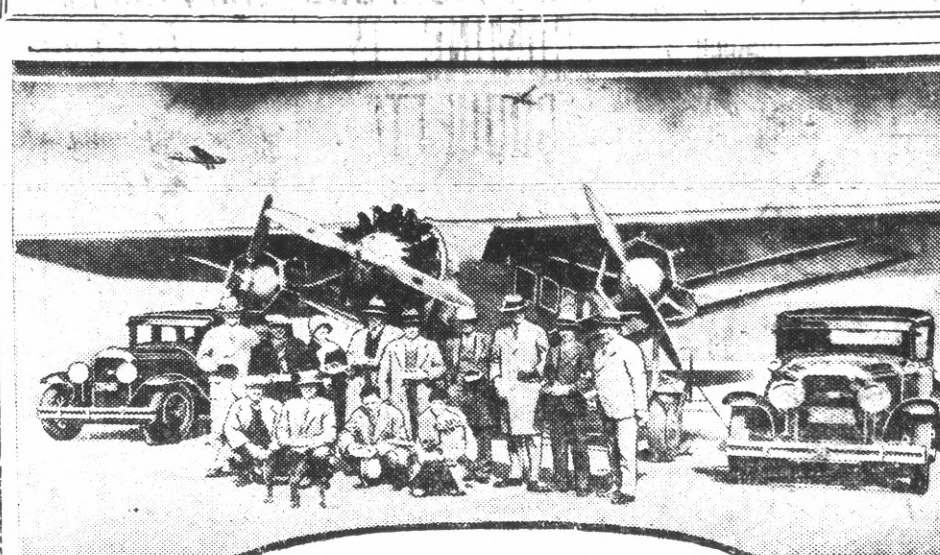

Owing to the greater weight of the '75' and 'Imperial' cars, the economy is naturally slightly less.

In city traffic gasoline is wasted to considerable extent, as the speed is not constant, due to the fact that so many stops must be made for stop streets, stop lights and traffic tangles.

"Study has also shown that the whole combined procedure of slowing up, stopping for traffic signals, waiting for the light to change and then starting the car moving again, cuts down the mileage enormously, consuming, approximately one half cup of gasoline, or equivalent to about one eighth of a pint.

"Very little gasoline is actually consumed when the engine is throttled down, as the Chrysler carburetor is adjusted to permit the engine to idle, with a fuel consumption of less than three pints an hour, which is comparatively small.

Tests Made

"In continuous running tests made with a Chrysler '65' the car was accelerated with wide open throttle from 15 to 30 miles per hour, then the throttle was closed and the car was decelerated to 15 miles per hour. The average speed during this test was 20.2 miles per hour. However only 16.4 miles were obtained from a gallon of gasoline during the variable speed test, as compared with the 24 miles obtained when the car was proceeding at a constant speed of 20 miles per hour.

"Again, the car was accelerated from 15 to 30 miles per hour and then slowed down rapidly with-the brakes to 15 miles an hour. In this test the average speed was 20.5 miles an hour but due to the braking operation only 9.5 miles were obtained to the gallon.

Traffic Tests

"In a traffic stop test a Chrysler '65' was started in second gear and accelerated to 25 miles an hour. The shift was then made to high gear and the car proceeded at 25 miles an hour to 2 miles from the starting point approximating a city block. The car was then stopped and the same routine repeated without idling any more than was necessary to shift to second gear. This test, representing a stop for a traffic light just changing, showed the car as covering 11.2 miles to the gallon.

"It can readily be seen that these conditions represent those found in city driving and the reason why more fuel is consumed under such circumstances than when the car is traveling at a constant speed on the open road.

"If every driver would bear these facts in mind and endeavor when in traffic to keep under way as much as possible, he would soon find his car showing a better mileage per gallon of fuel. For instance, when a driver is a block away from a traffic light and sees the light turn against him, he should, when it is at all possible, proceed slowly, but in gear, toward the light, in order that he will still be under way when the light changes, when he may accelerate and pick up speed, without ever coming to a dead stop.

Observe Rules

"The process of most drivers is to dash up to a stop crossing, or toward a signal light that he must wait for, slap on all four brakes, come to a dead stop, wait for the light to change and then start again. A little practice will prove that it is not often necessary and that, by timing driving, he can keep up with traffic lights so that a full stop, with its consequent waste of fuel in starting again, is unnecessary.

"By observing this very simple rule, a decided, and at times, surprising saving in fuel will be noted."

PREVENTION OF FIRE DRIVE STARTED

Organizing a statewide committee to conduct a campaign for the prevention and suppression of forest fires in California, federal, state and county officials and representatives of the California State Automobile association and the Automobile club of southern California have joined hands to coordinate all activities in connection with the annual problem of the fire menace. Details of a program of enforcement and education through radio broadcasts, literature, theaters, service clubs and other mediums of reaching the public will be worked out at a meeting of the committee in Los Angeles, July 2.

Enlistment of greater cooperation on the part of the public and particularly that of motorists and campers, is one of the main objectives of the campaign. Education of the general public to the fire hazard, strengthening and enforcement of existing laws, and inauguration of new legislation seeking to develop better fire protection are among the chief purposes of the group. The committee consists of: L. B. Shaw, district state forester, United States department of Agriculture; M. B. Pratt, California State forester; E. B. DeGolia, chairman, forestry committee, California State Automobile association; Dr. L. L. Hewes, regional director, United States bureau of public roads; C. H. Farnsworth, state highway engineer; Henry W. Keller, director, Automobile club of southern California; C. E. Todd, president, County Supervisors' association of California; Horace M. Albright, director, national park service; Charles B. Wing, chief, division of state parks, and C. C. Collett, manager, highways bureau, California State Automobile association, secretary.

Front Brake Drum Should Be Checked

The front wheel brake drums should be occasionally checked to ascertain whether or not they have developed between the wheel and the drum, suggest L. G. License Plates To Be Made By Firm At L. A.

ACRAMEXTO, June 30 — A saving in state funds approximating $80,000 was announced here today by the State Department of Finance in the award of contracts for the manufacture of motor vehicle license plates for the two-year period, 1929-31, to the Kluge and B. W. Norton Manufacturing companies of Los Angeles and Oakland respectively. The award is announced by Lyman M. King, chief of the division of service and supply, will give the state the same quality of plates now being used for the next two years, but at the price of 12 1/2 cents per pair, a figure 150 cents lower than was secured in competitive bidding last year. The net difference in the new price over last year, King announced is $80,000.

The color scheme for the 1929 plates will be the same as this year except that the colors will be reversed so that the background will be a deep yellow and the letters and numerals all black. Numerous tests made by the Division of Motor Vehicles have proven this combination of colors to have the highest visibility.

It was announced also that the new arrangement of letters and numerals, adopted for the first time this year, had proven so satisfactory that it would be used again next year. This will eliminate the necessity of having more than six characters on any plate.

The size will be the same as this year, 12 7/8 inches in length and 6 1/8 inches in width. The steel used will be 21 gauge and an inverted head will run around the border of each plate to give it strength.

Four bids in all were received, that of the S. G. Adams company of St. Louis, at 12 1/2 per cent being lowest. King explained that it was contemplated at first to award the contract to this firm but the negotiations with paper, carlons and other materials developed that it could not make deliveries according to specifications. The delay sought by the eastern firm, he said, would have cost the Division of Motor Vehicles $35,000 in overhead expense, thus wiping out the saving that might have been effected by acceptance of the lower price.

20 New Grade Crossings To Be Built Soon

Announcement of the 1929-31 program for the elimination of railroad grade crossings in the state of California was recently announced by B. B. Meek, director of the Department of Public Works, reports the National Automobile club. This program asks the approval of the State Railroad Commission for the construction of twenty new grade separation structures, and the improvement and widening of two existing structures, the railroads being asked to share the costs. The program calls for an expenditure of approximately $2,000,000.

King expressed pleasure over the contracts, pointing out that a splendid saving will not only have been made but that all the money to be spent on labor, steel, its officials developed that it

"The nation-wide acclaim with which the Chrysler is heralded is due to the quick appreciation of a motor-wise public that here at last is a car which is a marked departure from all earlier practice and performance. ++ In distinctive appearance, in performance ability, in economy of operation, in fine standards of manufacturing, in roadability, in driving convenience, in supreme quality, motor car experts give the Chrysler a place apart. ++ For the Chrysler is more than a great engineering feat—it is, literally, the culmination of all past engineering experience."

—Advertisement Saturday Evening Post May 3, 1934

TRUE FIVE YEARS AGO AND STILL TRUE

Daring to go back five years when the first Chrysler appeared, Chrysler can read without apology every promise made then, for every promise has been fulfilled.

In 1924 Chrysler was new. Its claims for performance, economy and stamina had not been proved valid by the hundreds of thousands of cars and millions of miles of driving that support today's leadership.

True, the automotive industry was started by Chrysler innovations. The public trend was to Chrysler if only because Chrysler instantly out-moded other cars. Comprehensive tests had convinced Chrysler engineers that they had built a superior product. Chrysler owners before long discovered that the car upheld every promise made for it, and their eagerness to testify to its speed, its power and its strength resulted in the prevailing worldwide acceptance of Chrysler.

Now, in 1929, the public's confidence in Chrysler is still unwavering. You, too, will discover the reasons for this increasing acceptance of Chrysler leadership in quality and value if you will test the car yourself.

THREE TENNIS
TITLES WON
BY U. S.

WIMBLEDON Eng. July 6 (U.P.)—Three of the five Wimbledon tennis titles tonight are in the hands of United States players. At the end today of the fortnight's play on the famous courts, France retains one of the two titles in the women's doubles.

Outstanding in the finals of the tournament was the victory today of the Americans, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn in the men's doubles. They were the only unseeded players in the tournament to win a title. They defeated Dr. J. C. Gregory and L. G. Collins of Great Britain in a bitter five set match 6-4, 5-7, 6-3, 10-12, 6-4.

Helen Wills Wins
Miss Helen Wills of Berkeley, California who won the women's title Friday, was another U. S. player who paired with Frances T. Hunter in the mixed doubles. The Americans sent down to defeat L. G. Collins and Miss Joan Perry of Great Britain, 6-1, 6-4. It was Collins' second defeat of the day at American hands.

The English women, Miss Margaret Watson and Miss L. R. O. Mitchell, who was Miss Peggy Sanders, defeated successfully the women's doubles title which they won last year by defeating their country women Mrs. B. C. Foster and Mrs. D. C. Shepherd, 6-4, 8-6.

The men's singles title remained in French hands. Rene Lacoste sat in the stands today to watch the title he won last year pass to Henri Cochet, who defeated the Basque, Jean Borotra in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2. Cochet, Borotra now have won the Wimbledon men's singles title twice each.

U. S. In Gains
American supremacy in the women's singles, the men's doubles and the mixed doubles this year is a distinct gain over the United States showing in the last Wimbledon tournament when Miss Wills, in the women's singles and Miss Elizabeth Ryan paired with P. D. Spence in the mixed doubles, were the only Americans to win titular honors.

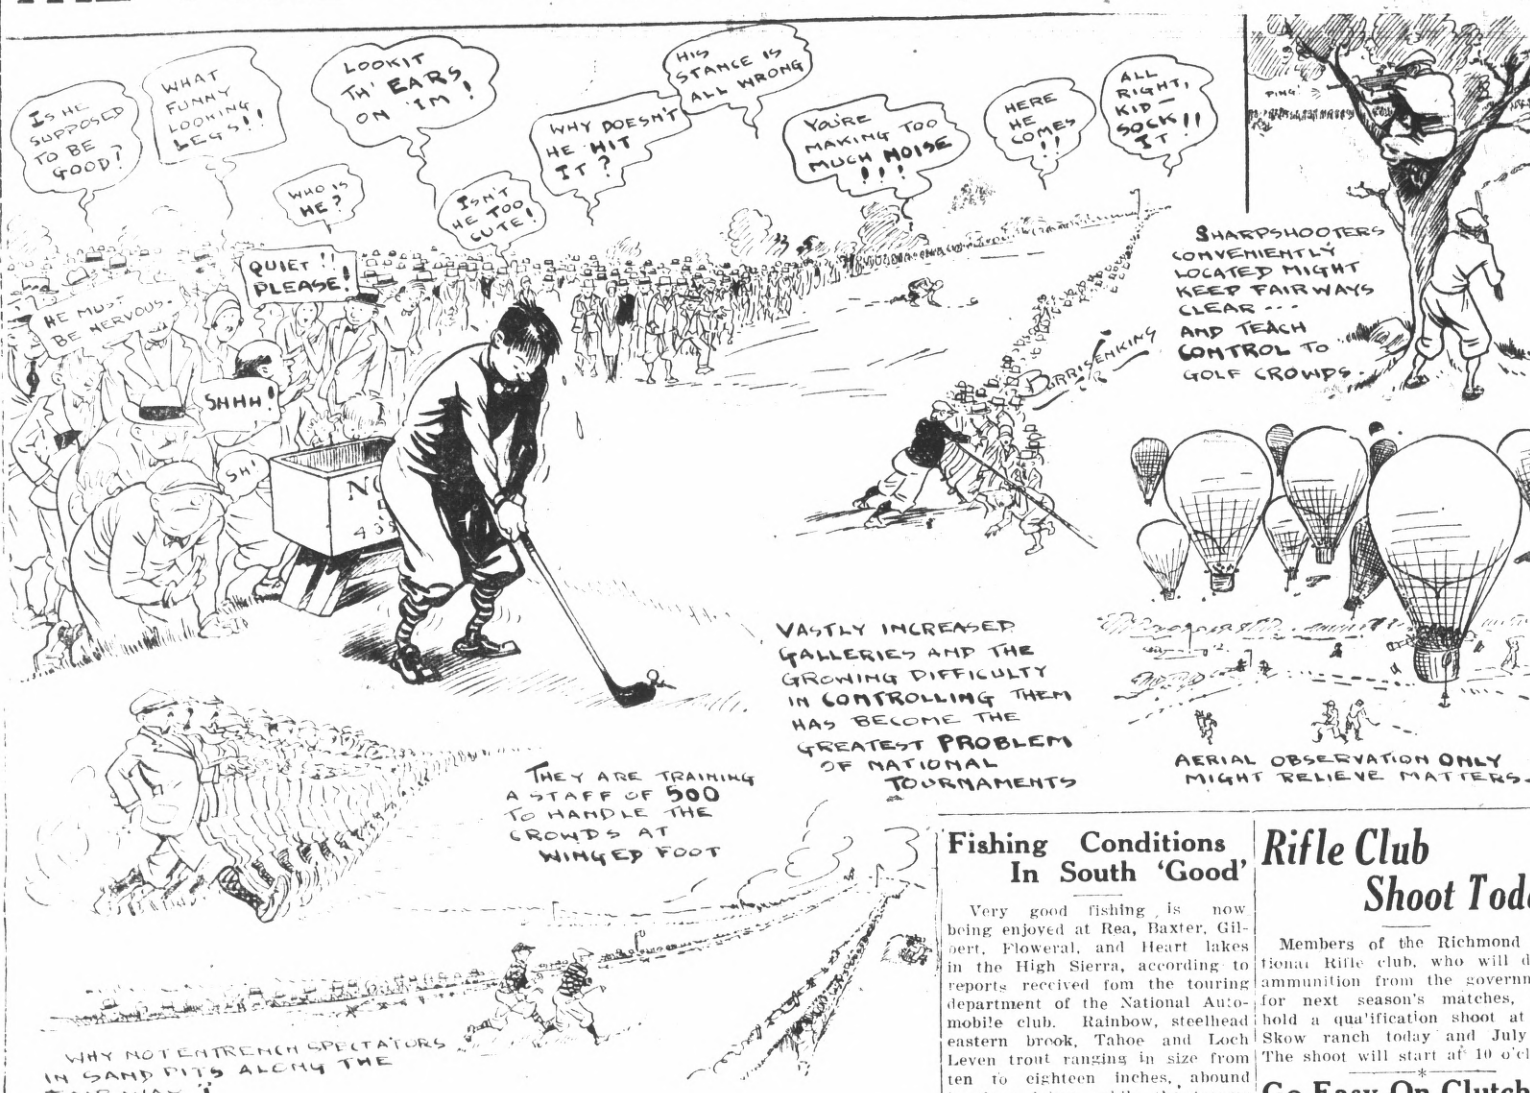

S. F. Man Winner
A sixth American victory was chalked up by Edward G. Chandler of San Francisco who won the consolation all-England plate, defeating W. H. Powell, Welsh champion, 6-4, 6-1.

The victory of Allison and Van Ryn is considered as enhancing their chances of becoming the American Davis Cup Doubles team. They were generally superior to the English Davis cup players, who they faced today for the first half of the match. After the middle of the fourth set, however, it was nip and tuck to the finish. The British pair led in the fourth set but the determination of the Americans warded off defeat until Allison lost his service in the twenty second game.

Cochet's superior steadiness, which won for him against Big Bill Tilden of the United States

Worms and salmon eggs are bringing good results and fair luck is being experienced with Black Gnat, Royal Coachman, and Gray Hackle. Water is medium high and clear.

Don't Cross Old
Country Bridges

The summer touring season takes many motorists off onto byways and little-used roads where there are often old-type bridge structures. It is a good idea, according to the California State Automobile association, never to cross a small bridge while a heavy vehicle is on it. Despite regulations against overloading, there are many who fail to observe the law, the additional weight of your car on an old bridge may tax the capacity of the structure—and be the last straw.

LOAN COMPANY IN MODERN OFFICE

Occupying one of the most modern offices in the business district, the California Guarantee Building and Loan Association is steadily keeping pace with the rapid growth of Richmond.

The association is located in its new office building at 1025 Macdonald avenue near Tenth street.

Heading the activities of the company in Richmond is Henry A. Johnston, whose experiences here have made him the logical man for the position. Associated with Johnston is a local advisory board composed of W. T. Heims, Dr. U. S. Abbott, T. H. DeLoe, A. P. Hill, Charles Renwick, Larkin Younce and George Rooker.

There are two major functions of the company. One is the matter of building loans for the construction of new homes. While the present needs in this line are considered good, it is believed that the future of Richmond will require a fast growing surplus of funds for building purposes. To secure money for its building loans the company is authorized by the state to issue investment certificates paying six percent interest and also to receive interest paying pass book accounts. There are a number of variations in the manner in which accounts are carried making it possible to suit individual requirements.

Six Cars Burned

Farther afield, along the city's main streets where the first car made its perilous way under a barrage of sticks and stones yesterday morning, little groups viewed evidences of the mob's handiwork. Twisted rails and the charred remains of a street car were on display in the downtown section. The Canal street barraged six cars burned by a mob during the night in rioting against which a force of 100 police were unable to cope.

The slashed tubing of a fire hose bore evidence of the facility of firemen's efforts.

Strikebreakers, armed with revolvers, sat around expectantly in the five barns. Policemen continued their 12 hour shifts of duty and 65 new policemen were put to work by Supt. Theodore Ray.
